Terms and Conditions of Acceptance

- Enrolment at our College constitutes a binding learning contract between you and London College of Business and Law to pay the agreed fee in full prior to the start date of your classes.
- Students are expected to attend their classes in line with the schedule agreed at the commencement of your course. Fees paid will not be refunded because of absences.
- In the event of absence for medical or other reasons, I agree to immediately inform the College and should my absence be for more than 3 days for medical reasons, I agree to provide a medical certificate to support my absences.
- The College reserves the right not to run courses as advertised, as courses will only be run if justified by demand. Fees already paid will be refunded in the event of course cancellation and you may be offered alternative sessions.
- Students applying from overseas to undertake the Law Seminars will be issued with Acceptance Letters by the College upon receipt of their full tuition fees. The Acceptance Letter will be used to apply for a Short Term Study Visa for 6 months.
- In the event of visa refusal, the tuition fees received by the College will be refunded to the student less the sum of £250.00, which will be retained to cover our administrative and incidental costs.
- This Application Form when duly completed must be accompanied by one (1) passport size photograph.
